سودة بنت زمعة رضي الله عنها

Sa'uda bint Zamah رضي الله عنها was a widow and the daughter of Zama. She married Rasulullah ﷺ after Khadijah رضي الله عنها had passed away. Rasulullah ﷺ was then 55 years old. She was generous, affectionate and kind. The reason for his marriage was that he needed someone to care for his children so that he could concentrate on the heavy responsibilities of Prophethood.
Aisha Siddiq رضي الله عنها has said about her: "It is only Sa'uda, on seeing whom, I wish my soul lived in her body." Sa'uda رضي الله عنها passed away in 55 A.H

عائشة صديقة رضي الله عنها

Aisha رضي الله عنها was the daughter of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه & was unmarried. In the 10th year of the mission, Rasulullah ﷺ married her. Since she was very young at the time of her marriage, she only began to live with him in Al-Madinatun Nabawiyyah from 2 A.H. He married Aisha Siddiqa رضي الله عنها in order to strengthen the ties of friendship with Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, his closest friend and also so that she could teach other women. Aisha رضي الله عنها led a very simple life without comfort and luxury. She dressed very simple. She served Rasulullah ﷺ with utmost devotion and he loved her very much. She led a very pious life. When Rasulullah ﷺ passed away, she was 25 years old. Thereafter, she lived for another 48 years and saw the rule of all the four Khulafaa. She is remembered for her intelligence, intuition, her knowledge of Hadith & principles of religion, secrets of Islamic knowledge, Arabic literature, piety and Islamic Fiqh. She became a great scholar and knew several thousand Ahadith by heart. Rasulullah ﷺ himself used to teach her and answer her questions. She used to teach other women as well. A great Scholar, Imam Zuhri, has said about her: "Aisha رضي الله عنها knowledge will surpass the knowledge of all the males and Mothers of the Faithful put together."

زينب بنت خزيمة رضي الله عنها

Zainab رضي الله عنها was the daughter of Khuzaimah. She was a widow and was poverty stricken. Moved by her piety and self-sacrifice, Rasulullah ﷺ married her in 3 A.H. Zainab رضي الله عنها was a very kind-hearted lady and ever ready to help the poor and destitute. She would spend all her income on charity & was called "Ummul Masaakin" or "Mother of the Poor." She passed away within three months of her marriage and was buried in Baqi Al Gharqad.

زینب بنت جحش رضی اللہ عنہا

Zainab رضی اللہ عنہا was the daughter of Jahsh bin Rabah and married Zaid bin Harisa رضی اللہ عنہ , the adopted son of Rasulullah ﷺ. After her divorce, she married Rasulullah ﷺ in 5 A.H., when he was 58 years old. Her marriage to Zaid رضی اللہ عنہ was a lesson to all not to distinguish between a free person and a slave in social matters. She was very generous to the poor people of Al-Madinatun Nabawiyyah. She passed away at the age of 53 years in 20 A.H. and lies buried in Baqi al Gharqad. When she passed away, Aisha رضی اللہ عنہا said about her: “Alas, the pious respected lady is no more and has left the orphans and widows broken-hearted.”

ام سلمہ بنت ابی امیہ رضی اللہ عنہا

Umme Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا was the daughter of Abu Ummayyah Suhail. When her husband passed away she was left with four children and had no means of maintenance. Rasulullah ﷺ , was 57yrs old when married her in the month of Shawwal in 4 A.H. She was very beautiful and used to live a very pious life. She did all kinds of good works. She was very learned and had a good knowledge of Hadith. She was able to teach others on Islamic matters. She read the Quran in the same style as Rasulullah ﷺ . She was almost as learned as Aisha رضی اللہ عنہا . She outlived all the Ummahatul Mu’mineen and passed away at the age of 84 years in 63 A.H.

أم حبيبة بنت أبي سفيان رضي الله عنها

Umme Habibah رضي الله عنها was the daughter of Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه and a widow. Rasulullah ﷺ married her when she was 36-37 years old in 6-7 A.H. This marriage also resulted in Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه accepting Islam. She was a dedicated wife and feared Almighty Allah much. She had much regard for the poor, down-trodden and destitute and prayed a lot for the Muslims. She passed away at the age of 73 in 44 A.H.

جويرية بنت الحارث رضي الله عنها

Juweriyah رضي الله عنها was the daughter of Harith & was a widow. She was a captive of war and set free by Rasulullah ﷺ who married her in 5 A.H. As a result of her marriage, the prisoners which belonged to her tribe were set free. This made many accept Islam. She was a highly self-respecting person. She was very religious-minded and spent most of her time in Salaah. She was also very learned. She passed away at the age of 65 years in 56 A.H. and lies buried in Baqi al Gharqad.

Safiyah ﷺ was a Jewess and taken captive during the Battle of Khaibar. Rasulullah ﷺ married her in 7 A.H. This made a great impact on the Jews, with the result that many accepted Islam. She was very dignified in her behavior, patient and polite. She was very much attached to Rasulullah ﷺ and he had great regards for her. She was also very generous and kind-hearted. She was also very learned. She passed away at the age of 50 and is buried in Baqi al Gharqad.

Maimunah ﷺ was a widow. Rasulullah ﷺ married her in the month of Shawwal when she was 51 years old. Her marriage also drew many towards Islam. She was very pious and humble and fond of advising Muslim women and freeing slaves. She was also very learned. She passed away in 51 A.H.
